A Brief History

Roosevelt Junior College was established in 1958 by the Board of Public Instruction of Palm Beach County as a two-year co-educational community college. The college is authorized and jointly supported by the State of Florida under the Minimum Foundation Program Law passed in 1947 by the Florida Legislature.

The purpose of Roosevelt Junior College is to offer an educational program that meets the needs of youth and adults in this community.

Dear Old RJC

(School Song)

Dearest Alma Mater, the source of our joy,
We will strive to serve thee from near and far;
With our pledge sincerely, and our love for thee,
Halls of Fame shall bear thy name, dear old RJC.

Blessed are thy stately walls, and thy efforts brave,
Sons and daughters answer to thy beckoning call;
Giving of our loyalty and our faith eternally,
Deeds of truth shall e'er grace thee, dear old RJC.

Noble Alma Mater, in thy Gold and Green,
May we ne'er forget thy council, nor thy pains of birth,
Rugged spirit ever present dedicated e'er to thee,
Halls of Fame shall bear thy name, dear old RJC.

OUR PRESIDENT

Extends Greetings

PRESIDENT BRITTON G. SAYLES

To those of you who for the past two years have chosen to embrace the company of specialists in various branches of learning and have known the intimate association of additional books which embody our traditions, I consider it a pleasant OBLIGATION to congratulate you on adding another segment to your education.

May you remain in continuous motion, ever toward such emotional, social, and spiritual growth that may adequately equip you to meet the rigid demands of these challenging times.

May succeeding classes catch the significance of this initial Roosevelt Junior College Commencement season and of the jogging expression, "Out of today is tomorrow born." EXCELSIOR!

Sincerely,
BRITTON G. SAYLES

CLASS SONG

(Tune: "Battle Hymn of the Republic")

The time has come for us to leave,
We're proud as we can be,
We've tried to do our best
And honor dear old R J C.
We hope we've left our mark
So deep that every one can see,
Our aims are shining bright.
We are the first to enter
And the first to graduate,
We hope we've filled your hearts
With love and not a bit of hate.
Sometimes we were quite early
And we stayed till rather late
In our classes every day.

Chorus

To higher heights and goals we're striving,
To higher heights and goals we're striving,
To higher heights and goals we're striving,
Our aims are shining bright.

CLASS POEM

Here's the path that we must take
For this life has just begun —
The life I speak of is the life we make
As a result of the work we've done.
Life is peculiar, yet life is sweet,
And it is ordained that we all must pay
For the life we live and the deeds we repeat
In our struggle for life each day.
As we look back on the courses we took,
We wonder if we did our best.
Did we waste time and merely look at the book?
Only the future can attest.
I cannot predict how the future molds
Or what the future may tend,
But the things we were taught
And the degree we shall hold
Will reflect our efforts in the end.

QUO VADIS

Within the next few days many of us will have reached a glorious milestone in our life's ambition and more specifically a new measure of intellectual attainment. To some it has been no easy task, with the economic sacrifices attendant upon such a pursuit and the hard grind in maintaining high scholastic standing prescribed by our institution; to others the novelty of a higher education and the new and steadfast pace it sets has certainly been a Herculean challenge of adapting curselves to the discipline and rigor of our organization and studies. But on a whole these two years of study at our newly established college have been a most profitable investment and as the years roll on we shall experience the stupendous dividends derived from long hours of study. We shall be eternally grateful for this opportunity of acquiring a college education.

Where do we go from here? Many of us are going on to a four-year institution. But, regrettably, some of us will not. Miscellaneous and varied obstacles will be strewn in our individual paths and we shall therefore have to be guided by our peculiar circumstances. But let us not be lethargic in our search for that royal road to success for our experiences will tell almost all of us that it does not exist. But rather let us make sacrifices to pursue our studies further, for the work is but half done. Let a burning ambition be kindled in our breasts until our ambitions of a four-year college education is a reality.

There was a time when the acquisition of a college degree was considered the epitome of intellectual attainment, but a college degree now enjoys no greater than the glories once reserved for a high school education and even a Master's Degree is but commonplace. Some five or six of us might set our sights on a Master's Degree and return to our class reunion with the coveted degree some four to five years from now. We have demonstrated our ability to persevere during these last two years; let our efforts not be buried but let them now bring us greater laurels.

In our enthusiasm and backslapping let us be ever mindful of the honor so rightfully due the members of our faculty and let us express publicly our thanks to them for the sincerity and patience with which each member has sought to guide us. Every teacher has been at his best and we are proud to pay due tribute to each one. And to our courageous, erudite and indomitable president, we wish to express many sincere thanks. May his efforts and determination be crowned with the success which so ostensibly characterizes his work.

— GLADYS RICH

YOU NEVER GRADUATE FROM THE LIBRARY

It has been a pleasure for the Library Staff to work with the members of the graduating class this year. The staff trusts that the materials made available to you and the experiences gained in using these materials will prove to be most beneficial to you as you progress toward a higher education or continue your place as a worthwhile citizen in the community.

The importance of the library in our society cannot be over emphasized. Everywhere leaders in the educational world have agreed that without reading there is little learning, or at best, learning is accomplished under a most discouraging handicap. Whether your need to read may be for information, inspiration or recreation, it is indispensable that the life-long progress of education be continued by reading and using the public libraries.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE GRADUATES!

Roosevelt Junior College Conducting First Commencement Activities

The graduating seniors of Roosevelt Junior College will hold Senior Recognition Night on Friday, June 3, at 8:00 o'clock. On this occasion the students will receive awards or recognition for outstanding work done during the past two years. Each senior will have an opportunity to express his aspirations for the future, and to leave a parting wish to the classmates whom he must leave behind.

On Sunday afternoon, June 5, at 4:00 o'clock, the Rev. N. A. Jenkins of Delray Beach will deliver the consecration message to the graduates and their families and friends.

The faculty will honor the graduates and their guests at a breakfast June 6, 9:00 a. m., in the Roosevelt High School Cafetorium.

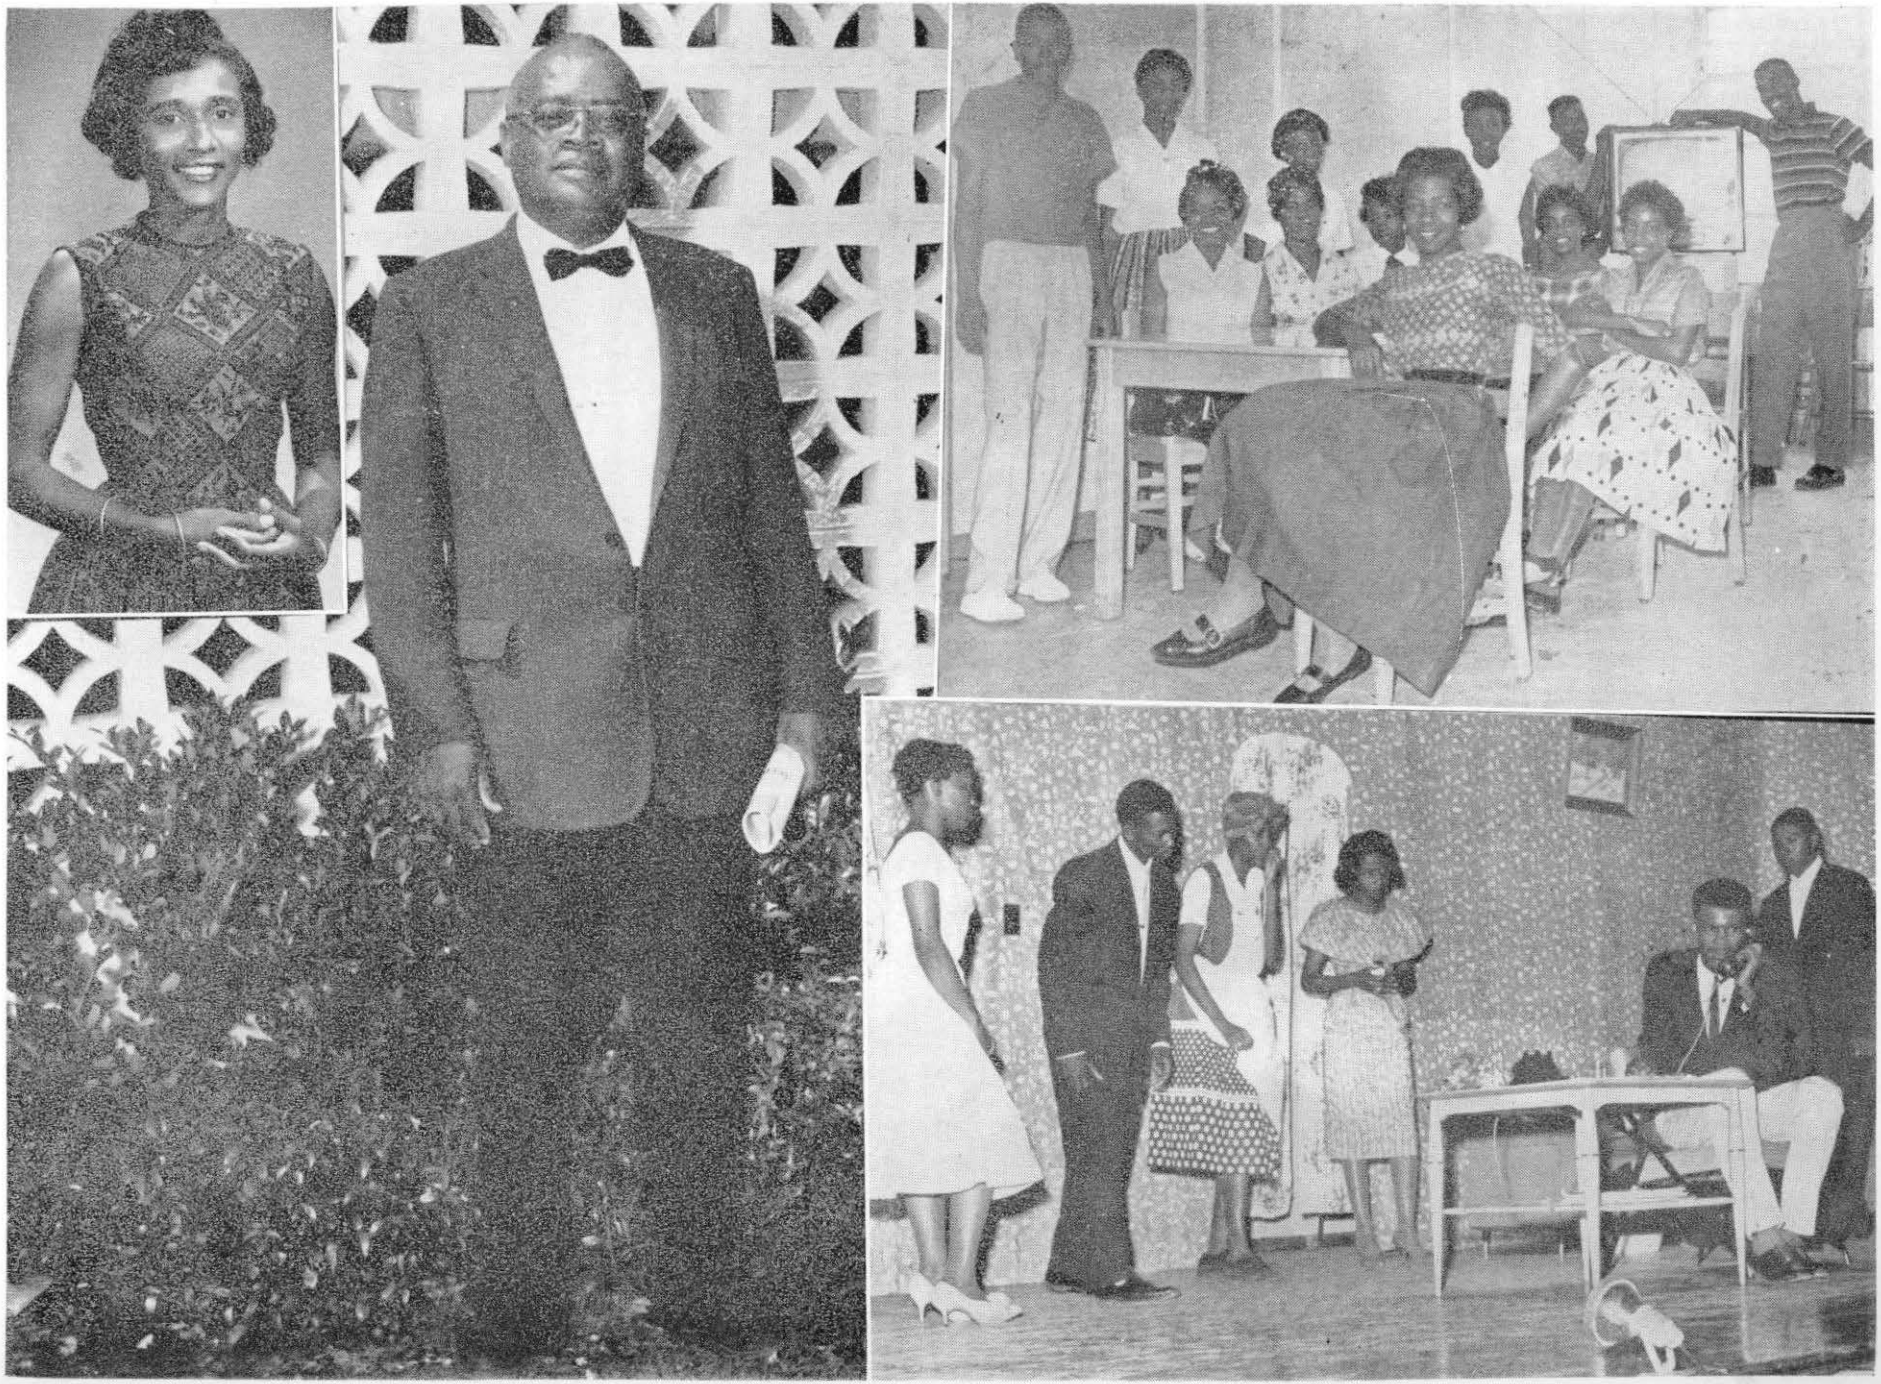
Culminating the commencement activities will be the Baccalaureate-Commencement-Dedication exercises on Monday night, June 6, at 8:00 o'clock, in the Roosevelt High School Auditorium. The speaker for the occasion will be the Honorable Thomas D. Bailey, State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Mr. Bailey was graduated from Kershaw (S. C.) High School, received an A. B. degree from Wofford College at Spartanburg, S. C., and a Masters degree in education from the University of Florida. Florida State College honored him with the degree of Doctor of Laws in 1949.

He was elected as State Superintendent of Public Instruction in 1948. He is the past club president of the Kiwanis, a past Post Commander in the American Legion, a past post Master of Masons, a member of Kappa Delta Pi, Phi Delta Kappa, Phi Kappa Phi scholastic fraternities, and of the Phi Kappa Phi social fraternity.

GRADUATES PRESENTING SCROLL

Members of the graduating class can never forget the part which Roosevelt Junior College has played in helping them toward their goals, it is therefore with sincere gratitude that the class leaves a beautifully designed scroll bearing the names of the members of the first graduating class.



GLORIA CARTER didn't hesitate when she learned that Roosevelt Junior College was being established, she was the first student enrolled in the college.
REV. PETER J. YANCEY, well known local minister, is RJC's senior citizen and a familiar figure on the campus.
THE HOSPITALITY CLUB makes plans for greeting the visitors who find time to visit the college.
"THE PENNINGTON CASE" — a three act mystery-comedy — attracted an appreciative audience to Roosevelt Auditorium. Members of the cast shown are:

RJC CHOIR AND ALUMNI CHORUS GIVE CONCERT

The Roosevelt Junior College Choir and the Roosevelt Alumni Chorus, under the direction of Walter T. Locke, with his wife, Mrs. Eunice B. Locke, at the piano, presented their first Annual Spring Concert Sunday afternoon, May 22, 4:00 o'clock, at the Roosevelt High School Auditorium. We must take our hats off to Mr. Locke for the splendid job he has done with these voices in so short a time.

The young ladies were beautifully attired in white sheer floor-length gowns while the young men wore dark formal dress suits.

The College Choir and the Alumni Chorus jointly opened the program with: "One World," arrangement by Wilson; "Save Us, O Lord," Mathews, and "Kyrie Eliason," Dieterich.

Before the closing numbers, Constance Turnquist, president of the College Choir, presented Mrs. Locke with a lovely bouquet of red roses and thanked her for the patience and service she had displayed in working with them. The Alumni Chorus president, William McKinney, presented a plaque to Mrs. M. J. Gilliam, director of the Senior Department of Music of the Roosevelt High School, for her years of excellent service with the chorus.

The closing numbers rendered by the combined groups were: "Battle Hymn of the Republic," Ringwald, and "The Lord Bless You and Keep You," Lutkin.

The concert was very well attended and everyone expressed the belief that the members of the group have made a name for Roosevelt Junior College. Many thanks go to Mr. Locke for the many hours of work that he put into trying to make his first concert a success.

The group is also grateful to the ushers who served and also to the members of the faculty who assisted Mr. Locke so willingly.

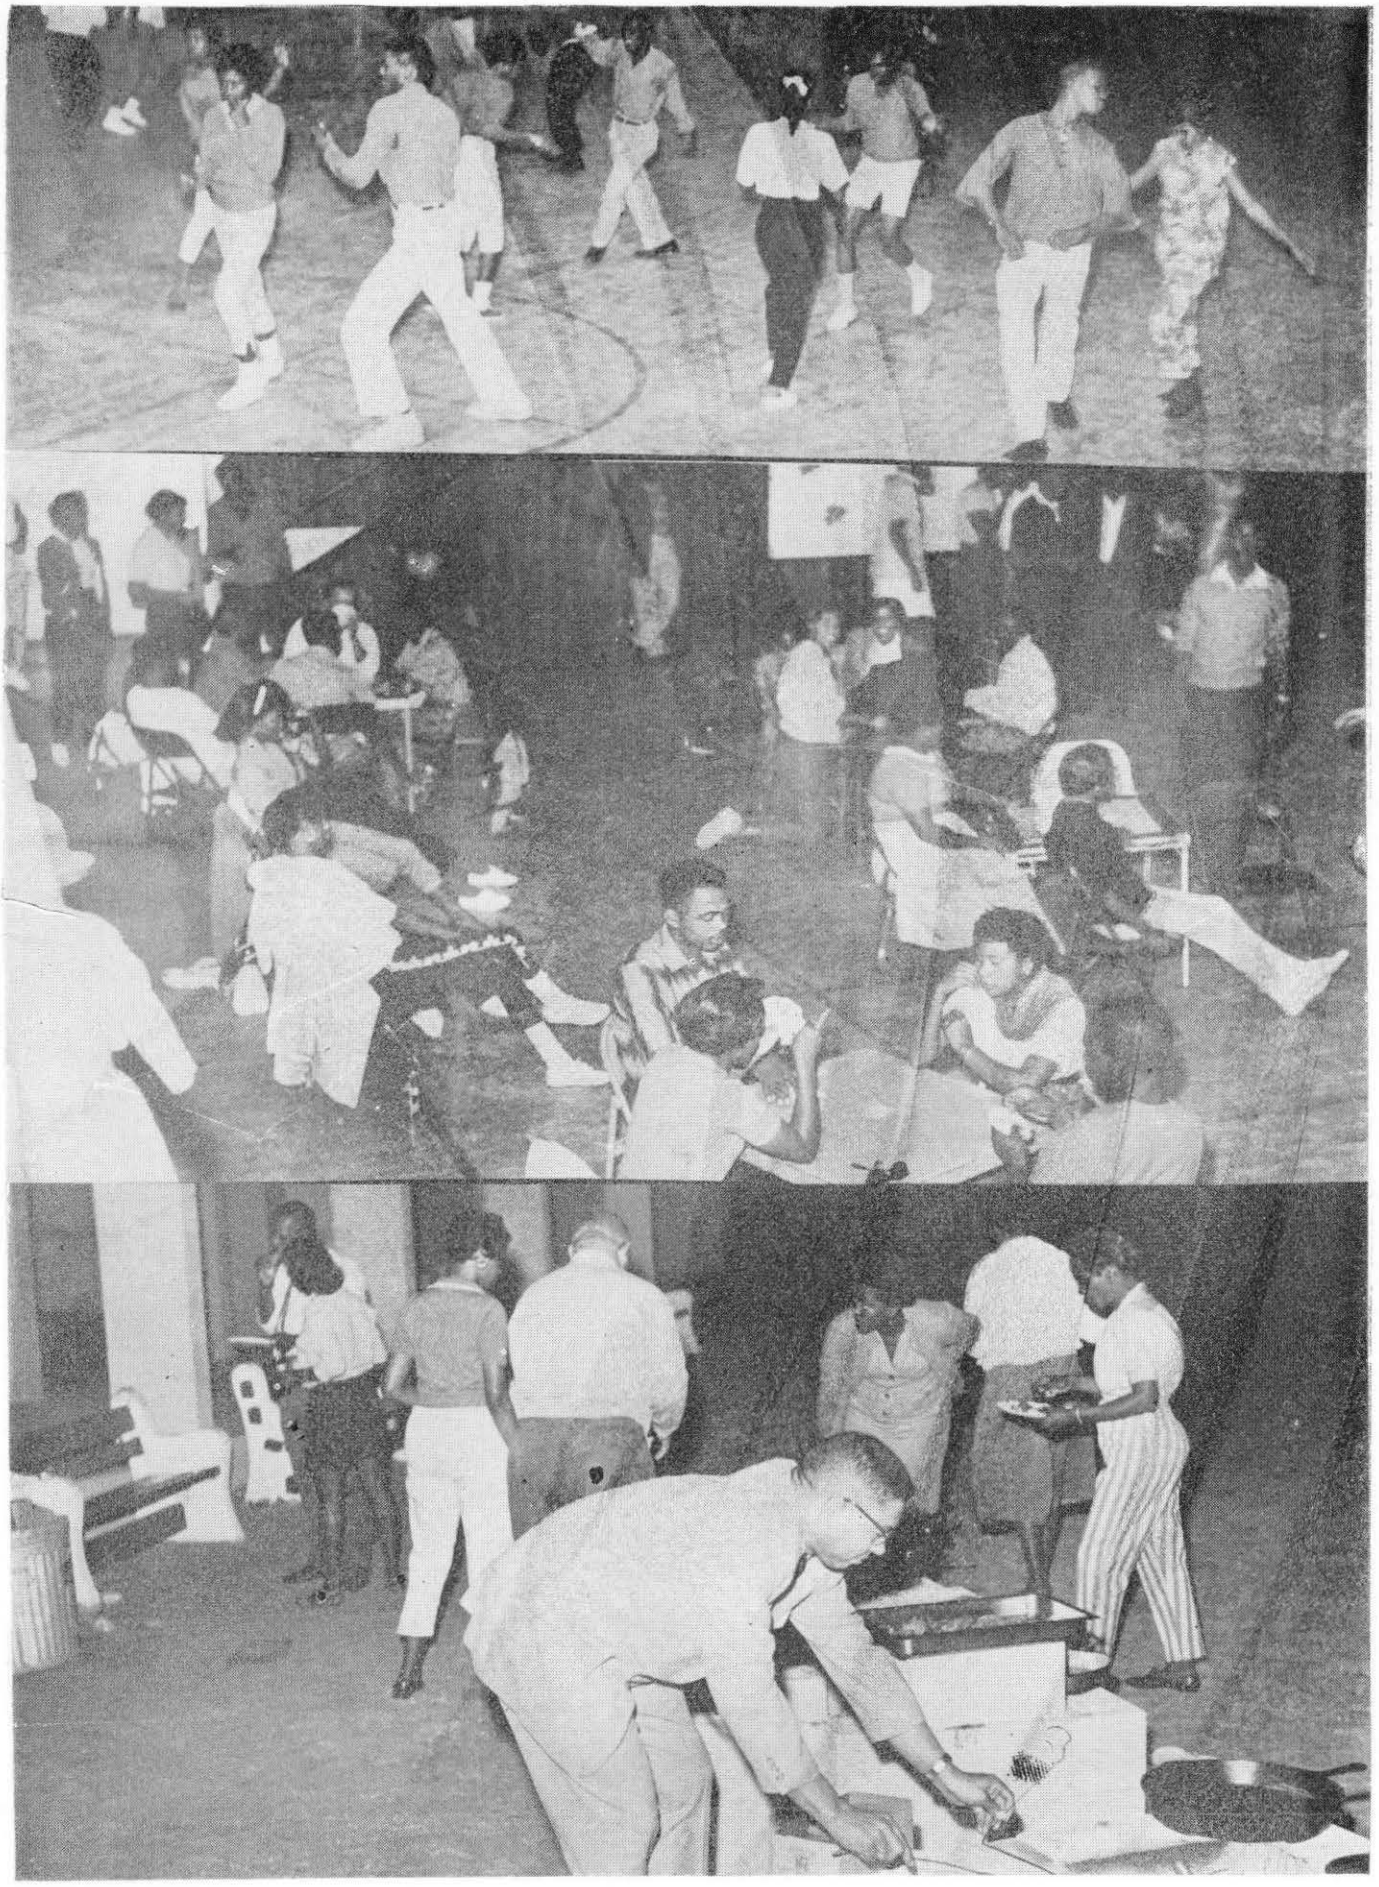
THESE MEMBERS OF THE GRADUATING CLASS are proud of the record that placed them on the Dean's List: Gladys Rich, Alveta Townsend, Betty Dawson and Ruby King. William Vann Daughtrey, a sophomore, recently won a State Scholarship Loan in nursing education.

THE LIBRARY is always a busy place and the group of eager students seen here are getting a bit of necessary information between classes.

STAFFORD "TINY" FERGUSON is the "little" man who has the big job of keeping everybody well entertained. Everyone agrees that he does a good job.

THIS GROUP OF SENIORS had a right to wear broad smiles because Dean Butler had given the green light to their plans for graduation. Graduates shown are: Annie Mays, Alveta Townsend, Gladys Rich, Louise King, Homer Battle, Ertha Bentley, Eddis Jones and Constance Turnquist, on the front row; Gloria Carter, Bertha Bates, Ruth Goshia and Betty Dawson on the back row.

Relaxing After Semester Exams



SWIMMING AND BASEBALL are enjoyed by students during regular class periods with all eager to participate in active sports.
